

GIRL KICKED IN HEAD BY HORSE MAY LIVE, DECLARE DOCTORS

Miss LOUISE STILL
Photo by WHITE

Father Drove the Injured Miss Still Fifty Miles to Hospital in an Hour.

Physicians at the Elizabeth General Hospital declared to-day that Miss Louise Still, twenty-four, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Still of No. 320 North Broad Street, Elizabeth, N. J., has a fighting chance after a fracture of the skull sustained when a partly broken horse kicked her behind the ear Sunday at Westport, where Dr. Still owns a farm. Miss Still, an expert horsewoman, and the only one of her sex graduated last June from the horticulture course at the Pennsylvania State College, has been in charge of the farm since her graduation.

Her removal to the hospital was accomplished in an hour, although Westport is fifty miles from Elizabeth. Dr. Still drove his car at a mad pace over the hills to the hospital, where Dr. Milton A. Shingleton performed an immediate operation, removing a bone which pressed on the brain.

Women who like to surprise their husbands or sons occasionally, with fine editions of something used—mufflers, handkerchiefs, neckties, etc.—will find The LONDON SHOP a mine of interesting things, most of them from Bond Street, or thereabouts.

Formerly A. T. Stewart & Co.

Broadway at Ninth, New York

Open from 9 to 5.30

Telephone 4700 Stuyvesant

"The New Things that November Will Require," Excellent and Low Priced

Cedar-lined Chests The opposite of Pandora's Box

For the latter kept within itself all the mischief-makers of the world, while the cedar chest keeps them all out.

Cedar chests keep your clothes fresh from dust and always smelling faintly of that spicy odor of cedar, and—free from moths.

Moreover, they're ornamental and may be used as benches in a room.

In plain cedar they range from a chest 36 in. in length, 17 in. in width, and 13 in. in height, for $17.25, to one, 48 in. long, 20 in. wide and 22 in. high, for $33.75.

Window-seat effect with arms and tray, in the largest dimensions named in preceding paragraph, $32 and $38.

Mahogany chests
—and walnut chests—cedar-lined.

are still handsomer, and range in size from a chest 45 in. long, 19½ in. wide and 17 in. high, for $43.25, to one, 48 in. long, 20 in. wide and 27 in. high, for $83.

Cedar bed chests are tremendously convenient for apartment bedrooms, for they slide right under a bed, even under a low couch-bed—being only 9 in. high. $21.25 each.

Fourth Gallery, New Building

Matelasse lends distinction to Coat Frocks at $55 and $69.50

Matelasse, one of the charming materials of former days, was revived by Paris this season. Its blister-like surface presents quaintly old-fashioned designs that are very effective when used as trimmings on frocks of plain silk crepe, or when the matelasse is used for the entire frock.

The frocks at $55

This frock—pictured at the left, above—presents the slim low-waisted silhouette in heavy silk crepe and chooses black or navy blue as its colors.

Matelasse in wide bands draws attention to the smartness of the new wide sleeves, and accents the simple dignity of its slender lines.

The frocks at $69.50

Matelasse, a delightful simplicity, and most original sleeves, share honors in the success of this frock. Caught at the side with a brilliant metal ornament, it achieves the swathed look that is so very smart this winter.

It may be chosen in black or the new shade of brown.

Other cloth coat frocks

At $55—models that prove conclusively the smartness of simplicity and black braid when used by a skillful designer.

At $79.50 models that show how flattering the low-waisted silhouette can be and how distinction steel or crystal beads, motifs in embroidery, or trimmings of colored leather, can add to a frock if cleverly used.

At $89.50 models showing a charming use of little tabs of the material or embroidery in heavy silk or beading.

Second Floor, Old Building.

Reed Baby Carriages now only $29.50

Serviceable, comfortable carriages—and very good-looking. Made of fine reed, with reed hood, reed roll on front of body and hood, adjustable back, and have sliding foot-well. Upholstered in corduroy with 3-piece corduroy seat and back cushions. The reversible gear permits the body to be turned around.

Come and see our exceptionally interesting display of American and English carriages, go-carts, and perambulators.

Third Gallery, New Building.

Two-toned Satin Negligees, $16.50

Well-cut garments. Tuxedo collar, cuffs and bottom, are padded in lambs wool, and daintily cross-quilted. Narrow sash belt. Blue and rose; rose and cerise; Copenhagen blue and gold; black and Copenhagen blue, and American beauty and cerise.

Third Floor, Old Building.

Dr. TRAPROCK the famous explorer author of "The Cruise of the Ketchikan" and "Curry Dishes for Moderate Income" (Publication price of the latter, $2.00) will be HERE Wednesday, between 2.30 and 3.30, in the Book Store, Street Floor, Stewart Building, to talk to anybody interested in his wanderings.

Paris says--

The color of
milady's stockings is a matter of vital importance

The favorite shades of the smart Parisienne are

Gray or beige

in all their lovely tones, or "skin of the onion," an amusing name for delicate rose-tinted beige.

BLACK, of course, is worn, but stockings in this color are so sheer in texture that their effect is scarcely black.

Our collection of stockings is exceptionally complete. They range from the American-made stockings at $1.95 to $6.50 (tax 45c), to the exceedingly delicate and gauzy stockings from France at $10 (tax 80c).

Stockings with a bit of embroidery or lace openwork are also in the collection in a delightful shade of silver gray.

Main Floor, Old Building.

Ampico Matinee Wednesday at 2.30

In the Auditorium

The CHICKERING AMPICO Reproducing Piano, with HELEN GRAHAM WAIT, Soprano (recently from the Marconi Opera Company, Buenos Aires), and CHARLES COOPER, pianist.

First Gallery, New Building.

John Wanamaker

Wednesday's Features * * * Shoes which have accomplished benefits termed by some people "miracles" are to be had at half price * * * The opposite of Pandora's Box * * * Second importation from RODIER * * * Little capes for sleeves * * * Uncle Sam's saddle leather in light luggage very lightly priced * * * Ampico Matinee.

For the First Time!

A Sale of Anatomik Shoes

(for Men, Women and Boys)

At Half their Present Prices

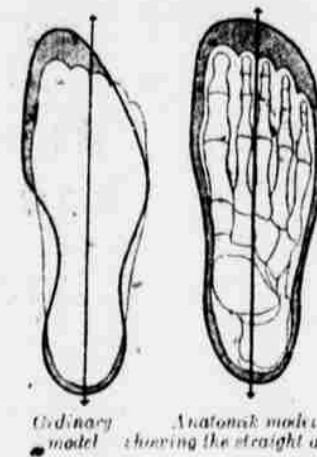

When everything went up in price at the close of the war we were faced with a dilemma in regard to ANATOMIK shoes.

Shall we keep the standard and raise the price, or shall we lower the standard and keep the old price as far as possible?

We did both. We had two grades made—and thus met the demand from all sources.

Now—with reducing costs we can concentrate again on one grade—the best quality; and ANATOMIK shoes should always be of the best quality, both in leather and shoemaking, because they are corrective shoes that must stand the strain of incorrect feet.

So we are selling out—at half price exactly—all the second grade ANATOMIK shoes on hand—

Men's $13.50 Anatomik high shoes for $6.75

Men's $12.50 Anatomik low shoes for $6.25

Boys' $9.75 Anatomik high shoes for $4.85

Women's $12.50 Anatomik high shoes for $6.25

Women's $11 Anatomik low shoes for $5.50

Bear in mind, please, that these are the ANATOMIK shoes that thousands of people wore with satisfaction for several years during and following the war, and that they are genuine ANATOMIK shoes with all the corrective features that give such relief to tired feet or feet that have given way under the strain of much walking, standing or the support of a heavy body. They are exactly like the first-grade ANATOMIKS that we shall continue to sell, except in the making and finish. As shoes they are better, both in making and leather, than can be bought today at the new prices now quoted. And ANATOMIK shoes are good for all people who want a sensible shoe, for they are built on scientific principles with their axis straight under the centre of the foot and body where the support of any structure, whether a human being or a building, should be.

There are 4,211 pairs of Anatomik Shoes in the sale, embracing practically all wanted leathers and styles although sizes are broken.

Men

may choose from black kidskin or calfskin lace high shoes; tan calfskin lace high shoes; and black kidskin and tan calfskin oxfords—but the oxfords are much limited in quantity and sizes—so that men desiring oxfords will please come as early as convenient.

Women

may choose from black kidskin and tan calfskin high lace shoes; black or tan kidskin oxfords; tan calfskin oxfords and white canvas oxfords.

For Boys

there are black calfskin lace high shoes.

It should be said to people who have not worn them (wearers know the fact) that ANATOMIKS are the foremost correct shoe of the day; designed and patented by an orthopedic surgeon of high repute, and recommended to their patients by hundreds of surgeons and physicians in all parts of the country. ANATOMIKS give relief where other shoes fail—to such an extent that the word miracle has been used many times in connection with the results.

If you are having trouble of any kind with your feet; if you have worn other corrective shoes and found them wanting; if you are wearing ANATOMIK shoes today; or if you want just a pair of good comfortable shoes—this is your opportunity to "take a look" at a price which will not be duplicated when this lot is gone. And though you may have to search for your size in just the shoe you want the saving and satisfaction will more than pay for the time and effort.

• Sale opens Wednesday morning.

Men's and Boys' Shoes, Burlington Arcade Floor, New Building

Women's Shoes, First Floor, Old Building

Trotteur Capes of winter-weight cloth at $35

A smartly flaring silhouette of double-faced cloth for warmth and color—in wood brown, a dark blue green mixture, and a rose rust shade, the inner side of the material in contrasting tone.

Two straps, to fasten around the waist, keep the cape from slipping off the shoulders—an important feature.

Pleated skirts, $9.75
plaid and striped are $15.75 grade

The first time in years, that we have been able to sell such skirts at this price.

Plaid and striped; delightful patterns in both brilliant and softly-blended hues to wear with every color scheme.

The pleats are deeply laid and firmly put in. The belt, an important factor in a pleated skirt—for all is lost if it is not well made—is reinforced with tape.

Second Floor, Old Building

Second importation of RODIER'S Kasha Cloth

Navy blue. Black. Colors. $6 yard

We have a standing order, from several of the leading dressmakers of New York, for all the Kasha cloth we can get—but we do not like to sell our goods en bloc; we want the public generally to have the benefit of them.

Kasha cloth is a fine soft cashmere yarn

It shows camel's hair on the face of the cloth. Paris dressmakers have used it extensively this season. New York dressmakers are doing the same thing. Among the colors of the new shipment are cream, biscuit tan, fawn, poppy red, wistaria, green, brown and navy blue.

First Floor, Old Building

Little Capes for sleeves in this Coat at $195

Among coats at $195—copies and adaptations of models from CHERUT, PAQUIN, PREMET, BERNARD, and other leading couturiers

The new silhouettes, the new trimmings are set forth in a charming manner.

Little capes, in lieu of sleeves

The bloused back with a distinctive giraffe set well below the waistline.

The flaring Russian coat with borders of fur.

Insets of fur showing under panels.

Straight coats with huge fur collars and deep set sleeves.

Fur is lavishly used, in borders, cuffs and collars in all the smart new shapes—shawl, straight and high, or the small round collar that fits close to the neck.

In squirrel, beaver, flying squirrel, mole, wolf (dyed in light and dark shades), caracul, and goat-dyed to match the color of the coat—a new idea in Paris this season.

Second Floor, Old Building

Furniture Sale

Dining-room Suites at Half Price

About 100, 19 patterns in mahogany and walnut. Each suite matched, perfect, from our regular stock, which was being pruned down to a lesser assortment. From $128.50 for a $257 mahogany suite of 4 pieces, mission design—to $840 for a $1772 walnut suite, 10 pieces, William and Mary design.

Bedroom Suites at a third less

About 50, 5 patterns in mahogany and walnut. Matched. Perfect. Our own stock. From $148 for a $224 suite of 3 pieces, straight-line type—to $348 for a $524 walnut suite Queen Anne type.

Sixth Gallery, New Building

Luggage Sale

Bags and Suit-Cases of Government saddle leather to be sold Wednesday, for $16.50

Prices of similar grades, today, $25 and $26

Of Government cowhide, used for saddles, saddle-bags, etc., during the war. The tanneries had to finish what was started before the armistice was signed and the Government shut down on its purchases. They sold their surplus at a loss.

You get in these bags and suit-cases the most sturdy, good-looking, serviceable luggage you have been able to get for many years at anything like $16.50.

Bags, 18 in. and 20 in. Suit-cases, 24 in. and 26 in.

The bags are in russet or black. The suit-cases in russet only. Bags are 3 or 5 piece style, lined with plaid linen or leather. Suit-cases are lined with plaid linen, and have shirt fold, and sewed-on corner protectors. Good locks.

Main Floor, Old Building

Men's WHITE Shirts 3,000 at $3 and $3.75

(tax 5c)

Below landed cost

Please let it be known, with the bare statement of the fact that these shirts are in every respect all that New York men expect in white shirts. And that at $3 and $3.75 they are better values than any man expected to get today.

They are of corded madras, with stiff cuffs or soft French cuffs—very, very desirable shirts. All sizes. They come from Czechoslovakia. And it will be interesting to compare the excellent workmanship and finish of these shirts with any others.

3,000 Pajamas at $5

Of double-end madras; collared shirt and cuffed trousers; blue, lavender, tan, pale green. Also from Czechoslovakia. And, also, at below landed cost.

Burlington Arcade Floor, New Building

Heckscher Building 5th Avenue at 57th Street

ma Offices

The Most Exclusive
Office Space in
New York

20TH FLOOR

FIFTH AVENUE

825 5th Ave. 825 5th Ave.

750 5th Ave. 750 5th Ave.

57th STREET

For those who appreciate the value of the most exclusive location on 5th Ave. this divided floor offers unusual space, with exceptional outlook. Two to six windows.

CUSHMAN & WAKEFIELD, INC.
Leasing and Managing Agents
50 East 42d St.

The Tower of Trade
Murray Hill 7820.

Upholstery TEL. WATKINS 5823

5-Piece Suits Reupholstered

25.98

15.98

ROYAL

UPHOLSTERING

MAIN OFFICE AND FACTORY

39 W. 14th St.

BROOKLYN BRANCH 1409 4th ST.